First Open Call for Course Content Creation and Review of eLearning Courses

NAHEP SubProject - Investments in ICAR Leadership in Agricultural Higher Education

ICAR-IASRI, New Delhi is happy to announce the first open eLearning call for Creating and Reviewing the M.Sc. Courses in Agriculture under the NAHEP SubProject - Investments in ICAR Leadership in Agricultural Higher Education.

Applications are invited online from the permanent teaching faculty from Agricultural Universities and ICAR deemed universities having NAHEP project (IG/CAAST/IDP) with at-least 5 years of experience in teaching for the development and review of e-Learning course content for master degree courses. Other eligibility criteria is also mentioned in the portal.

Applicants can visit eLearning Portal at : https://education.icar.gov.in/elearninghomepage.aspx, and can apply online after getting themselves registered.

For development of e-Learning course content, 2 mandatory courses from each M.Sc. discipline (As per BSMA) have been selected. The e- Learning material for these courses will be created under different Units. For each Unit, one Content Creator and one Unit Reviewer (Reviewer1) will be selected. For integrating and reviewing the complete course, one Course Reviewer (Reviewer 2) will be selected. The syllabus for the courses and the unit wise distribution is as per the prescribed PG curricula and syllabi of the Education Division, ICAR, New Delhi. The honorarium details and the structure and format of e-Courses is available on the eLearning Portal.

The eLearning Portal is open from 15th October 2019 to 5th November 2019 for filling up applications for Content Creation and Review. The Portal will then be opened from 6th November 2019 to 12th November 2019 for the Nodal Officers of the university for application approval.

A humble request is made to the honourable Vice Chancellor and Nodal Officer to kindly encourage the faculty to participate in this Mega e-learning activity and make the Agriculture Education more effective and accessible.

For your help and support a Reference Manual is made available on the eLearning Portal. You can also contact us on nahep.comp2@icar.gov.in
